The Mark Twain Library and Daughters of the American Revolution Drum Hill Chapter present...

The Danbury Raid of 1777

With Sal Lilienthal, co-author of Revolutionary CT & Brent Colley, former Reddingite and designer of historyofredding.net.

In April, 1777 a British force landed in Westport and marched to Danbury, laying waste to everything in sight.... before a group of local militia stopped them in their tracks.

Learn more about this pivotal moment in the Revolutionary War -- how it affected the town of Redding and helped spur the fight toward independence!

Sunday, March 12 at 3 pm

A Redding Remembers program celebrating the town's 250th Anniversary.
