READING TO ROVER

Share a book with a dog!

Reading to Rover is a great way to practice reading with a fun and attentive audience! You can bring the book you're reading for homework, or choose a new book.

Tuesday, March 8th

Choose a 15 minute slot
between 3:45-4:45pm

Children should be able to read but do not need to read fluently.

Thank you to the wonderful volunteers from the Ridgefield's ROAR Therapy Dog Program

To reserve your spot, visit the front desk, email Miss Lisa at lisacederbaum@marktwainlibrary.org or call the Library at (203) 938-2545 (There is no online signup for this event)

Photos from this event may be used on the library's social media sites.

Early Spring Sing Story Time

Wednesday, March 9th

10:30-11:00 Stories & Songs

11:00-11:15 Art Project

Ages birth – 5 (all accompanied by an adult)

Young children and their accompanying adult are invited to hopefully welcome an early spring at the Spring Sing Story Time. We'll share sunny and warm songs, stories, and dances. Then, interested children are welcome to stay for a craft. Spring snacks will be provided for children and adults.

To reserve your spot, please visit the front desk,
call the Library at (203) 938-2545,
or go to www.MarkTwainLibrary.org
